Courts Resume Virtually during COVID-19

Ontario Court of Justice

Although the courthouse remains closed for the public, court matters have now resumed virtually, which means that all individuals who have matters before the courts are expected to attend court via teleconference or Zoom. We are available to provide support for our clients with their virtual court appearance. Please refer to the OCJ website for more information.

Our Court Program continues to provide support to self-identifying women who have charges before the courts. We continue to accept self referrals, as well as referrals from court personnel (i.e., Duty Counsel, Crown, etc) and social service providers.

Clients are welcome to call and discuss how we can support them through their court matter. The Court Case Manager/Court Support Worker can be reached Monday-Friday at 705-559-0763 (call or text).

We would also like to extend our Thank You to Women's Resources for inviting us to present our Justice services at this month's KLHDVCC meeting!

Harm Reduction and Naloxone Program

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Peterborough, through "A Different Approach – Substance Use and Addiction Peer Support Program" continues to provide Naloxone and harm reduction supplies to service users.

Programs now available Online!

In response to COVID-19, we are preparing to move many of our programs to an online platform to better support our clients virtually. The platform will allow clients to access and complete the program material on a flexible schedule with additional support from staff.

Currently, we are taking registration for the Health Relationships program and hope to have additional programs ready by the end of November.

If you would like to register for the program or if you would like more information, please email Annessa at annessa@efryptbo.org, or call 705-749-6809.

Board Members

Please join us in welcoming some of our new Board Members!

ALLISON WIGHT

I am thrilled to be part of this team as I am passionate about reform of the criminal justice system and supporting holistic alternatives to incarceration. I've worked in various types of shelters and supportive housing units in St. John's, Sioux Lookout, Whitehorse and Victoria. I've recently moved to Peterborough to complete my Social Work Degree. I am honoured to serve as Secretary on the Board of Directors at Elizabeth Fry Society and meet some more of you soon!

CAILEIGH MCKNIGHT

I completed a student placement at EFry a few years back and really enjoyed my time with the organization. When I saw the call out for new board members, I was excited at the potential to be able to get involved with EFry again. It is very exciting to see the growth of the agency and the dedication of the staff. I am looking forward to my time as a board member!
